

TDDP'S CHARISMATIC APPEAL STUNS MASS APPEAL

Team TDDP continues to shine as CEO of Mass Appeal India, Peter Bittenbender, was left stunned by our young talent. Hosting the CEO of one of the biggest media and entertainment companies working on a mission to represent and progress urban culture and youth-born movements on an international scale was truly a humbling experience for The After School of Hip-Hop. Awed by the special showcase performance prepared by our budding artists, Peter Bittenbender gifted books, pens and notebooks to our students. The day was made more special as the school celebrated our Hustler MC Heam's birthday.

JAMMIN' WITH THE LEGEND TOM THUM

When our upcoming talents get an opportunity to jam with legendary musician and OG human orchestra, Tom Thum, the product is sure to make everyone groove. On his visit to the school, artist Tom Thum displayed his talents to our beatboxing batch and answered the million curious queries of our awestruck students. Showcasing his own beatboxing techniques, he broke into a jam with our very own BBX Sadhana and Danny BBX. Being a graffiti artist himself, Tom Thum interacted with our students and even left a personalised parting gift of his own name tag for the school.

MADNESS WITH THE MIGHTY MAD TWINZ

The madness of TDDP was doubled when the international band Mad Twinz entered the house and conducted a workshop for our talents. Pavel Frolikov and Evgeny Frolikov are one of the most famous DJs, beatboxers and sound producers in the scene. The workshop helped the students understand the intricacies of sound variations and learn innovative techniques to bring in diverse sounds. The power-packed workshop was open to all and did not just benefit our young TDDP artists but also artists from the beatboxing community who attended the event.
