

Kick-starting the first joint Haq Se Hindustan concert by Rolling Stone India and Oyuki to celebrate an exclusive podcast series on Hip-Hop, TDDP performed amongst a line-up of 10 acts from 7 cities across India. With our hustler MC Heam's powerful wordplay, Nagesh

BBX's grooving beats and our students taking the stage by storm with their power performances. The After School of Hip-Hop slayed the show. Not just that, TDDP's awe-inspiring graffiti collaboration with Prathmesh Gurav aka Zake was the cherry on top!

FIELD TRIP TO THE RED BULL BC ONE MUMBAI FINALS

Our budding BBoys and BGirls went to the biggest, craziest and grooviest event for Breaking this month! Witnessing true style form and technique of breaking and networking with artists from across the globe at the Red Bull BC One World Finals in Mumbai was indeed a huge learning experience for the students. Now that's called learning with the right practical exposure!

'BEFIKAR LAUNDA' MC HEAM SHINES AT MTV HUSTLE

Competing amongst the best rappers from across the nation on India's first Hip-Hop show, MTV Hustle, our in-house rap instructor MC Heam won hearts with his style. Mastering the chill-hop genre and setting new standards amongst the community, Heam's songs were widely appreciated for their musicality and lyrics by the judges and the audience. Team TDDP honors Heam's dedication in spreading the message of peace through Hip-Hop.

MTV HUSTLE'S RCR SALUTES TDDP'S BUDDING ARTISTS

Rapper, lyricist and MTV Hustle finalist known for mixing Sufism with Hip-Hop, RCR visited the school and interacted with the students. Awed by their original talent, he helped them hone their skills by teaching them techniques to build core strength. During the interaction, RCR shared his wisdom about the true essence of Hip-Hop, the importance of staying true to your art and of originality within the community.

BRINGING GULLY TO DILLI

A crew of our thirteen talented artists wrote and performed a song for EEMA's Speaking Minds event in New Delhi. First time out of Mumbai experience for most, the event was organized by India's leading autonomous, non-profit body of organizations and professionals working in the Events and Experiential marketing industry. Performing at the closing ceremony in front of a crowd of 600 people, the cheers and applause from the audience proved to be a huge confidence boost for our kids.

SPOTLIGHT

TDDP collaborates with Zake for Haq Se Hip-Hop Graffiti Art

TDDP Shines at PBWA Kali Puja for Diwali

The After School of Hip-Hop Slays at Bombay Fest

