

TDDP SHINES AS ZIRO'S HEROES

Performing as a crew at the line-up of the Greatest Outdoor Music Festival in the Ziro Valley of Arunachal Pradesh, TDDP received a great deal of love and support from the audience and artists present there.

Our star performers MC Heam, Mr Lash, BBX Sonu and BBoy Vikram delivered enthralling performances at the Ziro festival during their stay for three days among many other artists from diverse backgrounds.

TDDP SAYS 'INDIA'S GOT COLOUR'

Keeping up with Hip-Hop's tradition of fighting social evils, MC Amogh and MC Joshua joined the bandwagon with 'Women of Worth' against colourism. Our artists wrote a part of the lyrics and featured in the music video by Nandita Das for the 'India's Got Colour' campaign that takes a satirical dig on unjust skin colour bias prevalent in society. In the two-day shoot for what became a viral video, our talents featured with personalities like Ratna Pathak Shah, Radhika Apte, Gul Panag among others.

HIP-HOP ZINDABAD AT ALL ABOUT MUSIC CONFERENCE

Our OG Hip-Hop Squad led by our Head, Dolly Rateshwar represented our very own talent at the All About Music Conference. Claiming the stage as the YouTube RedTalk Speaker, Dolly shared the origin story of TDDP and inspired the audience with her speech. While addressing the true spirit of the school in enabling a cultural ecosystem for Hip-Hop, she introduced our talent to the world with a showcase performance that left everyone awestruck. Representing their hood, our artists spread the word of Hip-Hop and the increasing potential in their community yet again.

BREAKING BAD WITH YOUTUBE

At the YouTube Pop-Up Space Initiative, our breaking students also got an opportunity to showcase their awe-inspiring moves for their exclusive content shoot. Bboys Vikram, Sachin, Akash, Kailash, Abhishek, Mayur, Andrew, Michael, Shahrukh, Rahul, Parshuram, Joel and BGirls Nisha, Jainvi and Nishita participated in the shoot. The team is grateful to YouTube's Pop-Up Space initiative for offering all types of production resources to assist our artists, including state of the art soundstages, post-production, and equipment.

THE AFTER SCHOOL OF HIP-HOP GETS SCHOOLLED

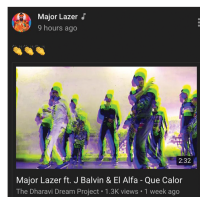

As part of the Pop-Up Space initiative, our budding artists from TDDP were schooled on all things YouTube. For YouTube's Mini Bootcamp '@NextUp', 60 talents registered online out of which 14, including MC Afzal, MC Nikhil, MC Franky, MC John, MC Girish, MC Siddu, MC Joshua, MC Lavesha, MC Amogh, BBX Faiz, BBX Sonu, BBX Melvin, BBX Sadhana and Bimesh Graffiti were selected for the workshop. The workshop taught our artists video uploading among many other tricks of the trade.
